Superannuation guarantee - maximum contribution base

Income year	Per quarter
2024-25	$65,070

Low income super tax offset

If your adjusted taxable earnings are less than $37,000 for the year, the government will refund up to $500 of the 15% contributions tax you've paid on before-tax contributions.

This payment will be made automatically by the Australian Taxation Office providing your super fund has your Tax File Number.

Government co-contribution

The maximum co-contribution for a financial year is 50 cents for every $1 in after-tax contributions, up to a maximum of $500 if you earn $45,400 pa or less. The co-contribution reduces when you earn over $45,400, cutting out once your income reaches the government threshold, which is $60,400 for the 2024-25 financial year.

Spouse contributions

You can receive a tax offset of 18% on up to $3,000 of contributions you make on behalf of a low income spouse. The maximum contribution reduces by $1 for each $1 the spouse's assessable income exceeds $37,000, reducing to zero where the spouse's income is $40,000 or more. You can split up to 85% of the previous year's pre-tax contributions with your spouse.

Preservation age

From 1 July 2024 the preservation age for all people is age 60, regardless of what year you were born in.
